

Dim the screen and take a break with some local information to help you explore your future options. Do some local research with the Here to Help flyer or read through the Pathways Poster and think about which journey sounds like something you'd enjoy. There are people who really want to hear what you have to say, so why not get the kettle on and have a chat? You can use your free voucher to call a dedicated careers adviser or talk to someone you know. Starting a conversation is usually the hardest part, so here are some options you might want to use to get the words flowing

Not sure what to do next?

Or do you feel really passionate about something but don't know what the next steps are.

Here is your VIP Voucher to have a chat to an expert who can help and guide you, whatever stage of the journey you are at.

Got yourself sorted? You can still talk to us about your future plans and we'd love to hear about your success story.
