LANCASTER ACADEMY READY For Careers Programme

“Over the course of a year we deliver six ‘READY for the Future’ careers enrichment days. These days facilitate opportunity for a range of local employers, businesses, colleges and universities to work with our students both in and out of school to gain those all-important encounters. Each READY day offers students the opportunity to try out different jobs through our ‘I want to be a...’ day and take part in careers related trips, ‘I’m going places!’. Beyond this the enrichment days support students at key points in their decision making through events such as the Careers Fair, Living Library, Mock Interviews, Work Experience, University visits, NCS workshops, taster sessions and work with local enterprise organisations. Supporting students in being ‘READY for the Future’ requires a great amount of commitment from all staff at Lancaster. As a staff team we are wholly focused towards exceptional progress and aspirational opportunities for all.”

PRIME LIFE Funded Public Speaker

Daniel James has worked in the Health and Fitness industry for more than 10 years. After struggling with depression in 2017, Daniel decided that he wanted to help others struggling with their own mental health. Daniel offers engaging public speaking sessions to students in KS4 and KS5 around his career, the importance of setting goals, challenging stereotypes and much more. The LLEP are offering to fund talks in up to 20 schools in the local area on a first come first served basis.
